—AND—
Security Unquestionable

From the San Francisco Journal of Commerce.

A GOOD INVESTMENT,
Better than Money in a Bank.

In new and growing communities money commands a high interest but as a section becomes settled and capital accumulates, rates of interest fall. The savings banks of San Francisco paid 12 per cent. interest in 1870, while now they pay only 3⅝ to 4½ per cent., which is about the same as Eastern rates. Heavy losses have taught our people the folly of mining stock speculation, and the present low rate of interest at the banks has caused prudent men to look about for some investment which shall be both safe and at the same time profitable.

One of the best ways of solving the problem is offered by the endowment plan of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. We can best show this by giving a practical example from the books of the company.

Policy No. 30,777, ten premium thirteen-year endowment, issued at age of 32, February 1, 1883, for $1,000, annual premium $85 50, on the life of Nicholas Dahinden, Milwaukee.

* * * * * * * * * *

Mr Dahinden received 5⅜ per cent. compound interest on his investment in a policy of the Northwestern Mutual Life, besides being insured for $1,000 and upward in case of his death and furthermore, his money was as safe as if it had been in the best savings bank. Where can one find a better investment? The semi-tontine policies combine all the best features of sound life insurance.

It is the deliberate judgment of very many of the best business men of the country that the non forfeiting semi tontine of The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company is the best thing in the way of life insurance ever offered to the public.

Five Men Killed by a Coal Mine Explosion.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PRESIDENT

The New Public Printer—Another Bond Call—Recapture of a Desperate Counterfeiter—Aged Couple Robbed

SCRANTON, Pa, Aug 30—A terrible explosion occurred in the Fairlawn colliery this morning which resulted in the death of five men. Two others were seriously injured. John H Hosie and J Gallagher were standing at the head of the slope at the time of the accident and felt the force of the explosion as the rush of air came out of the mouth of the mine. They at once started to go in and ascertain the extent of the damage.

The August quota of coal had been mined last week and no men were employed in the mines. Word came however, that a party of five or six men had gone into the mine to clear up their chambers. Mine Inspector Blewitt happened to come along about this time and he and Gallagher with a party entered the mines going down to the third or lower vein and then followed the air course stopping to repair damages to the brattice etc as they went along. Their progress was necessarily slow and the course they followed took them to the right hand side of the mine. They came at last to a point where they found repairs necessary and returned to the foot of the mine for more material when they learned that groans had been heard in the east gangway. They worked over that way and found the party who had gone in the mine before the accident near the entrance of one of the chambers a short distance from the foot of the vein inside the plane and about 150 feet from where the heading branches off. Three of the men were alive and three were dead. The killed were Hugh Conners of Bellevue, Edward Gaughan and Michael Lyle.

THE WOUNDED MEN

The first man brought to the surface was John Nolan who was badly burned about the face and arms. John Kerrigan was alive when found, and talked the strongest of all but he died before being brought to the surface. The next was John Connor. He has two large scalp wounds, bad cut on the knee and another on his arm. His face and hands are badly bruised. He was taken to a hospital. The body of Edward Pierce, fire boss, was found about 150 feet from the others.

They waited there in the blackness of night sick, wounded and helpless with their dead comrades dying near them. At last they heard voices, and Connor called. Presently the voices came nearer, and then they saw lights approaching and soon the rescuing party were with them. The position in which the bodies were found bears out this statement. He could not tell whether Pierce ignited the gas or whether it was ignited by the lamps. The explosion came like a flash, too quick for anyone to tell anything about it. They had no reason to expect to find any gas there, and how the fire originated is a mystery.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

THE PRESIDENT GOES INTO THE WILDERNESS.

SARANAC, Aug. 30.—The president's party left Saranac Inn this morning for the upper lake region for a few days' hunting and fishing in that remote territory. With them went Col. A. H. Belo, of the Galveston News, and Harry W. Brown of Philadelphia. The steam launch Nellie conveyed the party down Saranac lake to Sweeney's camp, where a long jaunt across the country awaited them. It is not yet determined whether Mrs. Cleveland and her mother will go into the woods or await the return of the party at one of the hotels on the edge of the wilderness. In all probability they will make the venture, as Mrs. Cleveland has expressed a desire to rough it with the others. Few ladies here have courage to undertake such a jaunt in the woods. The party will not return before the latter part of the week. Guides took along "Major," a Scotch deerhound, a famous old hunter in the region, and other dogs will be procured for the chase. A score or more of the guests at Saranac inn gathered at the wharf and waved an adieu to the voyagers. Mr Nathan Strauss, of New York, who entertained the president at his cottage on Lower Saranac last year called on Mr Cleveland just before his departure. The party have gone beyond reach of telegraphic communication and may not be heard from until their return.

THE NEW PUBLIC PRINTER.

WASHINGTON Aug 30—The National Republican says "That a new government printer has been appointed was settled beyond dispute at the government printing office to-day, and the employes expect to meet their new chief at an early day. Gilbert Benedict brother of the new public printer, arrived here yesterday. At 12 o'clock he reached the printing office, presenting his credentials made himself known and relieved Taylor as chief clerk of the office. The change was considerable of a surprise, as it was not supposed that any step of this kind would be taken before the public printer had himself qualified and bonded. The bond is $100 000 and there is no official information that a bond has either been offered or accepted. In making the change above mentioned before arriving in the city, it is supposed that the public printer is only mapping out a way to make his acquaintance with the office and its duties easier to secure. There is much uneasiness and trepidation among employes especially those holding the principal positions, that they may be called upon to abdicate in favor of some applicant meeting favor with the successor of Mr Rounds.

LOCKED OUT

ATHOL, Mass., Aug 30—The expected lockout at Lee's shoe shops took place this morning when the employes, on coming to the shops, found the doors guarded by policemen. Every man and woman before being allowed to enter the factory was obliged to sign a certificate to the effect that they do not belong to any labor association and will not join and engage in any strike while in the employ of Lee. Of four or five hundred hands only about twenty five signed the certificate and went to work during the forenoon. The Knights of Labor have requested the selectmen to close all saloons for such length of time as may be deemed advisable. Everything remained quiet throughout the day.

ANOTHER BOND CALL

WASHINGTON, Aug 30—The following circular was issued by the treasury department this afternoon. Notice is hereby given that on the 15th of September 1886 or at any time prior thereto, the department will redeem at the treasury of the United States, in the city of Washington or at the office of the assistant treasurer at New York, paying par and accrued interest to date of redemption any uncalled United States 3 per cent bonds to an amount not exceeding $10 000,000. Bonds forwarded to Washington for redemption should be addressed to secretary of the treasury, division of loan Washington and all bonds should be assigned to the secretary of the treasury for redemption.

CHANGES AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK Aug 30—Daniel Magone, the new collector of the port assumed the duties of his office to day. The custom house was formally turned over to Magone by retiring Collector Hedden.

Gen Newton also took possession of his office as commissioner of public works. He appointed as his deputy D Lowber Smith which is sharply criticised in some quarters as a fatal mistake, some journals declaring that Smith is worse than Squires.

HE EXPECTS NO TROUBLE.

NEW YORK Aug 30—Superintendent Toucey of the New York Central railroad said he has heard nothing further from the Knights of Labor employes who asked for an increase of wages. It was his purpose he said to deal with his employes as individuals not as members of the organization of the Knights of Labor. He thought no trouble would ensue, as the company intended to deal fairly with employes.

UNDERGROUND WIRES

NEW YORK Aug 30—After two hours discussion and legal contention work was begun upon the electrical subway to day. The composition through which the wires are to run contains twelve conduits two and one half inches in diameter. There are to be two lines of these side by side and the surface will be about two feet wide. A large crowd gathered to witness the breaking of the earth.

THE STREET CAR TROUBLES

NEW YORK Aug 30—Employes of the Belt line had a meeting to night and expressed much dissatisfaction over the new time-table. They say that it is impossible to make six trips on schedule time and want a rearrangement of the time table. They say they will renew the tie up if the demand is not acceded to.

THE PAN ELECTRIC CASE

WASHINGTON, Aug 30—In the case of J Harris Rogers against Attorney General Garland, [illegible] Harris and others in connection with the Pan Electric telephone controversy, plaintiff to day filed a rejoinder in demur saying that the bill was good in substance and petitioning the court to put the cause on the calendar.

A GIRL TO JUMP FROM BROOKLYN BRIDGE

ROCHESTER, Aug 30—Madge Doloro a handsome Chicago girl accompanied by her backer, Jerry Costello passed through here to night for New York where she will make an attempt to jump from Brooklyn bridge for a purse of $10 000.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

RECAPTURE OF A DESPERATE COUNTERFEITER

LANSING Aug 30—W W Kennoch, chief of the Michigan district secret service, will take to Detroit to-night a counterfeiter named William Wansor of Vermont, one of the most desperate thieves and 'shovers of the queer' in the country. He was captured last night in a barn three miles Southwest of Lansing. Wandsor was arrested in the Lansing postoffice Friday night, but escaped on the way to the lockup. He had been boarding for several months with G G Allen under the name of Fred Harris, and was working the state as a wholesale agent for queer coins. In his trunk were found $800 in bogus gold and $1200 in certificates of deposit on the Lansing savings bank. The coin ranged all the way from $1 to $20 pieces which could not be detected from the genuine save for light weight. Wandsor remained in the woods after his escape until driven into farmer Weldon's barn by rain. The farmer saw one leg beneath the hay while hunting for eggs and notified the officers. During his absence Wandsor dug down six feet into some unthreshed wheat where he was found after four hours search. He was so weak from suffocation that he could hardly stand and would have been dead in half an hour more. Detectives from New York have been on his trail for over three months.

AN AGED COUPLE ROBBED

BELLEVILLE, MICH Aug 30—Benj Elwell a well to do and aged farmer living three miles south of this place in the township of Sumpter was the victim of a daring robbery last Saturday at midnight. Mrs Elwell awoke with a choking sensation and immediately awakened her husband who detected the fumes of chloroform in the room. He then attempted to leave his bed but received a sharp blow on his head coupled with a threat of instant death if he made an outcry. The burglars two in number then bound and gagged Mr and Mrs Elwell and later possessed themselves of a tin box containing $8,000 in gold which Mr Elwell had been carefully hoarding for years. The burglars then demolished a trunk in the same room and secured [illegible] in valuable papers bonds etc. After warning the couple to make no outcry the robbers left. There is no clue to the perpetrators but the general opinion is that not a stranger took part in the robbery, inasmuch as the burglars knew the location of the money and other valuables they secured.

KILLED HIS SON IN LAW

NEW ORLEANS, Aug 30—A special to the Times-Democrat from St Joseph says: This morning as Judge J B Flan and Joseph H Nicholls were in consultation in the law office of the former Col. [illegible] Reeves stepped to the front door and fired the contents of both barrels of a shotgun into the head and shoulders of Nicholls killing him instantly. Col Reeves surrendered himself to the authorities and was lodged in jail without bail. He claims to have acted in self defense. Nicholls was a son in law of Col Reeves and some family trouble is supposed to have been the origin of the difficulty.

BRIBERY CASE DISMISSED

COLUMBUS O Aug 30—The bribery case against W W Cappeller was dismissed to day, no one appearing to prosecute. Allen O Myers who had a hearing on a charge of perjury in the same connection was discharged, it appearing from the evidence that he did not intend the arrest of Cappeller.

PRIZE FIGHT IN A CLUB ROOM

BALTIMORE Aug 30—Johnnie Murphy of Boston, champion feather weight of New England, and Billy Young a local pugilist, met in a club room in this city and fought six rounds with hard gloves. The affair was kept very quiet and full particulars cannot be ascertained but it is known that the fight was very savage and that Murphy came off victor. Young was quite badly punished. A number of professionals were present.

THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

Appointments for the Ensuing Year—Personal and Church Notes.

FOREST GROVE, Aug 30

Messrs Sails and Jones have become known as "the twins."

Bishop Harris has been the guest of the pastor here Rev W D Nichols.

Monday forenoon was devoted to hearing reports of the various committees.

Rev J. F DeVore of Tacoma attended conference on Friday and Saturday.

Willamette university now has endowment funds to the amount of $40 000.

Three families from a distance attending the conference have been camping out.

Street preaching on Sunday evening was conducted by Messrs Sails and Jones.

The benevolent collections of the church during the past conference year amount to $2803.

Rev J T Wolfe is now serving his thirteenth year as secretary of the Oregon conference.

A large number of members of other conferences have been visiting here the past week.

On Sunday morning, three persons were ordained deacons and in the afternoon three others were ordained elders.

Wm Roberts and N Doane are the oldest members of the Oregon conference they having been admitted in [illegible].

Rev M C Wire of Salem filled the pulpit of the Congregational church Sunday morning, and Dr H K Hines in the evening.

Rev. Matthews of the West St Paul M E church made a splendid speech Friday evening on the subject of Higher Education.

One thousand and twenty nine persons have been taken into the church during the past year making the total membership five thousand seven hundred and fifty-four.

Just before the conference adjourned yesterday, a resolution was offered and carried to the effect that the conference of bishops be asked to set the time of holding the Oregon conference to some time in the early part of September.

The congregation at the M E church last Sunday was the largest known to the church here. Over fifty teams from the country were hitched in the grove adjoining. The bishop was listened to by more than a hundred from outside the church.

One of the candidates for deacon's orders was a Chinaman named Ching who will labor among his people at Seattle. He made a most interesting talk at love feast Sunday morning, touching his conversion always referring to himself as "this lad."

Absurd Stories about his Behavior at the Capital—The International Sculling Sweepstakes—Old World Notes

BALTIMORE Aug 30—The Sun to-day has the following special dated Washington August 29: The state department has just received an order issued by President Diaz the chief executive of Mexico through the medium of a circular issued by Senor Mariscal Mexican minister of foreign affairs and distributed throughout the Mexican states, which will doubtless benefit Americans now and hereafter under arrest in Mexico. The circular to the governors of the various Mexican states as translated from the Spanish original is as follows:

LAW ON THE TRIAL OF FOREIGNERS

DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, MEXICO, [illegible]

Circular No. 7—It has been noticed recently and with frequency that some newspapers published in countries friendly to Mexico receive with excessive ingenuity and even with marked hostility [illegible] the complaints of foreigners resident in the republic who are arrested for crimes which our laws [illegible] with corporal punishment who pretend that they are victims of unjust acts committed by our authorities. In view of the damage which such conduct may inflict upon the good name of the nation if care be not taken to rectify opportunely the mistakes contained in the complaints and in the comments based thereon the president has seen fit to decree that you be recommended in case of the arrest of foreigners for any cause within the limits of your state to remit to this department as soon as possible a detailed report of the causes for the action of legal process and of the status of the same. The supreme magistrate therefore hopes that the government under your worthy charge will dictate the necessary instructions to the subordinate authorities.

The president also desires that as far as in you lies care especially be taken so that in the cases I allude to arrest may always be effected by virtue of a written warrant issued by competent authority, and that in criminal prosecutions against foreigners the judiciary of your states comply strictly with the provisions of the law. Issue an order for imprisonment within the constitutional limits, and regularly inform the government as to the status of each case to be communicated to this department.

I renew to you my esteem and consideration.

MARISCAL.

This form of circular has been addressed to the governors of all the Mexican states.

SEDGWICK ON A "TEAR"

A Sensational Story about a Carousal with the Gilded Youth of Mexico

NEW YORK Aug 30—A Times City of Mexico special says: A. G Sedgwick, Secretary Bayard's special envoy to Mexico, has been here since last Monday. The Mexican press noted the arrival of Sedgwick, and at the same time announced that he had unlimited credit at a banking house in this city. This announcement secured Sedgwick the attention of some of the Mexican young bloods, and he received an invitation to a tea by the Jockey club. Mr Sedgwick went there and enjoyed himself immensely. Drinks were free, and toward the small hours of the morning the special envoy was full. His friends surrounded him and gave him assurances of their undying devotion. They decked him out with flowers and placed a big bouquet in the top of his hat. About 4 A M the inmates of the Iturbide hotel were aroused by a noisy performance. There were some twenty or more of Mexico's gilded youths singing and shouting and they led in triumph Sedgwick, the special envoy. "Viva el embajador Americano" they cried and Sedgwick decked out with big long garlands and evergreens nodded a proud assent. At 2 P. M. Sedgwick returned to his hotel, looking the worse for wear, but wearing a brand new hat.

ALL NEW TO BAYARD

NEW YORK, Aug 30—The World's Washington special says: Much interest was manifested here in an account that has been received by telegraph from Mexico of the alleged performances of special envoy Sedgwick. Secretary Bayard was seen and asked if he knew anything of the report. "It is all new to me," he said, "and I cannot believe it until I have the most positive proof."

AN EMPHATIC DENIAL.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug 30—In an interview this afternoon Sedgwick, American special agent emphatically denied the stories against him in circulation in the United States. Leading representatives of the Jockey club who have been interviewed upon the subject express themselves as sorry that the good name of the club had been called in question. They said that Sedgwick was a conspicuous guest at their ball, and that he behaved as a gentleman should.

SEDGWICK'S MISSION.

A Denial of Absurd Stories about his Treatment by the Mexicans.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug 30—Reports have been current here since Friday night regarding the treatment of Sedgwick, American special agent in the Cutting case, who was on that evening one of the guests at a ball given by one of the clubs of the city. The club in question is the most aristocratic in Mexico among its members being government officials of the highest class and representatives of the oldest and most distinguished families. The club gave Sedgwick an invitation as a special honor to an American representative. He was received with marked tokens of respect, and every one endeavored to make the evening agreeable to him he being an honored guest. Toward the small hours of morning there was the usual flow of champagne and numerous toasts were drunk in one of the rooms apart for gentlemen. Careful investigation shows that Sedgwick, while undoubtedly participating in the convivial enjoyment of the hour was in no way treated insolently. Members of the club and its managers strenuously deny that any discourtesy was intended or practiced towards Sedgwick who had made an excellent impression.

HE IS TO BE DINED

To set at rest all injurious reports regarding Sedgwick it is proposed by leading representatives of the highest society of Mexico to give him a series of dinners and receptions in order to make it evident that he has the esteem of the Mexicans, since the rumors became current large numbers of entirely ridiculous and unfounded reports have been in circulation, but no person of reputation or standing in the community conversant with the matter supports them. Last evening Sedgwick was a guest at a private house at dinner at which were present Minister Mariscal department of foreign relations and Minister Romero Rubio, of the interior department.

Sedgwick is conferring with Minister Jackson and investigating the laws of Mexico bearing on the Cutting case. He is having translations of the laws made and when through here he will go to Chihuahua and then to Paso del Norte.

INTERNATIONAL SCULLING SWEEPSTAKES

Trial Heats to Decide who shall be the Contestants

LONDON Aug 30—Portion of the trial heats to decide who shall be the contestants in the international sculling sweepstakes on Wednesday were rowed to day. The weather was scorchingly hot. In the first heat Neil Matterson of Australia and Wallace Ross were contestants. The course was from Battersea to Hammersmith. Matterson got an advantage of a few feet in the first half minute but before the first furlong had been covered Ross drew up level with him. At the end of the next furlong Ross led by a length, and when the mile and a half (almost half the distance) had been rowed he was two lengths in advance. Directly after reaching this point Ross almost stopped and Matterson went ahead and at Putney bridge led by three lengths. After this the race was over. Matterson winning leisurely in 18 minutes and 41 seconds.

Hubear then rowed over the course scoring a bye.

The course for the second heat was from Hammersmith to Kew. The contestants were John Teemer, of the United States, and George Perkins of England. Teemer was favorite five to one being offered on him. Teemer at the start rowed rather a snatchy stroke enabling Perkins, who had best water, to gain a slight lead in the first few hundred yards. Teemer then settled down to a longer and steadier stroke and soon got on a level with Perkins. He drew steadily ahead and when Barnes bridge was reached he led the Englishman by four lengths. Teemer won eventually without effort, finishing three lengths ahead. Time 18 minutes and 40 seconds.

The third heat was between Beach of Australia, champion of the world and G. M. Lee of the United States. The course was from Kew to Hammersmith. Lee led by a couple of lengths for the first quarter mile but after that was beaten. At Barnes bridge Beach drew away and won the heat easily by three lengths. Betting was ten to one in favor of Beach. Twice during the heat Lee got over into Beach's water and the second time he fouled him. Beach claimed a foul and allowed

ENGLAND

GLADSTONE AND THE LAND BILL

NEW YORK Aug 30—T P O'Connor's London cable to the Star says: Gladstone's announcement of the final and permanent separation of the land purchase scheme from the home rule bill and Harcourt's statement to the same effect taken together make the most startling political sensation we have had for years. The retirement of Gladstone's land proposal was supposed generally to be temporary, with a view to its modification and reintroduction concurrently with the home rule measure whenever the party might come into power again. This is the first authoritative and decisive [illegible] that the two measures have been forever and irrevocably separated. The radicals are naturally in high spirits at Gladstone's decision which some of them believe they had no small share in influencing but they complained and with solid reason as I have cause to remember that the decision was delayed until the election was over. The liberal party split and the tories are securely seated in power. Had the announcement been made during the electoral struggle the Gladstonites would have secured nine tenths of the constituencies where the issue destroyed the unity of the party.

THE PARNELLITE PLAN

LONDON, Aug 30—It is rumored the Parnellites intend to oppose the government in its desire to hasten the closing of the present session. There is a likelihood of some night sittings on the estimates.

THE BULGARIAN REBELLION

ALEXANDER'S MOVEMENTS

RUSTCHUK Aug 30—Prince Alexander has been warned to take precautions against possible attempts on his life by fanatics and followers of the intriguing M Clement whose party has a ramification in the interior of Bulgaria.

Prince Alexander arrived at Sistova at 8 o'clock this morning. His entry in the town and his progress through were one continuous triumph. The prince afterwards started for Tirnova and arrived there this evening.

ALEXANDER ISSUES A MANIFESTO

RUSTCHUK Aug 30—A manifesto has been issued by Prince Alexander. It approves the measures adopted by Stambouloff of the regency, confirms the existing ministry and the appointment of Mutkurow as commander in chief of the army, thanks the people and army for their fidelity and resolute attitude in favor of independence, implores God's blessing and urges all to unite in promoting the welfare of Bulgaria.

THE CABINET REMODELED

LONDON Aug 30—The Bulgarian cabinet has been remodeled and is now strongly anti Russian. Nachevics foreign minister was a leading spirit in the movement to counteract the Zankoff plot by which Alexander was forced to abdicate.

It is rumored that King Milan of Servia has expressed a desire to renew diplomatic and amicable relations with Bulgaria.

ALEXANDER TO MILAN

LONDON Aug 30—In reply to King Milan's congratulations Prince Alexander said: I was touched by Milan's sympathy and hope to see a Servian agent at Sofia and a renewal of the friendship between Servia and Bulgaria.

AUSTRIA

THE AUSTRIA HUNGARIAN CROPS

VIENNA Aug 30—The fourteenth international corn and seed market has been opened here. Harvest reports for Austria-Hungary show that the yield of wheat is from 5 500 000 to 6 000 000 hectolitres below the average; the yield of grinding barley is 7 000 000 hectolitres below average, and of rye 3 500 000 hectolitres below average. There is a medium yield of malting barleys and oats. Other grain available for export is malting barley to the amount of 2 500 000 or 3 000 000 hectolitres.

THE CHOLERA EPIDEMIC

ROME Aug 30—Cholera returns for to-day are Barletta ten new cases and two deaths; San Giovanni Rotondo fifteen new cases and eight deaths; Molfetta, ten new cases and eight deaths; Ravenna twelve new cases and twelve deaths. In the other towns the average is eight new cases and two deaths.

THE POPE ACCEPTS

PARIS Aug 30—It is stated that the pope has accepted the proposal of France to send Mr Agliardi temporarily to Pekin to study conjointly with representatives of France and China conditions for the eventual establishment of a permanent nuncioship to China.

CANADA.

GUARDING AGAINST CATTLE DISEASE

QUEBEC, Aug 30—It is feared that other animals at the Levis quarantine will have to be sacrificed to prevent contagion. Owners of animals are admitted to them only on condition of afterwards burning their clothes and taking a bath. The earth road traversed by the animals will be covered over to the depth of a foot. It is probable that the authorities will have to buy all the cattle owned around the quarantine.

The gay and festive burglar entered R S Wallace's residence last night, but failed to get away with anything very valuable.

Mrs Mary B Chase mother of Mrs W W Munkers of this city and John Chase of Roseburg, died in this city on Sunday last in the 80th year of her age.

T Orin Barker of this city will in a few days leave for Boston Mass. as a representative from this state to the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows.

The H A C band gave a sacred concert at the plaza yesterday afternoon, some of their renditions being exquisite and listened to with delight by many of our citizens.

The members of Capital Engine Co No 1 are anxiously looking for the arrival of their new steamer which it is to be hoped is en route and will reach here before tournament week.

Our Boys Engine Co No 1 of Walla Walla is the first company to enter the Firemen's association of Oregon from Washington territory. Henry Kelling and Thomas Hart were elected delegates.

W H Tuller special agent of the Covenant Mutual Benefit association of Galesburg Ill and secretary of the State Firemen's association of Michigan has been spending a few days among friends in this city.

The members of Sedgwick post No 10 are making preparations to assist Comrade Z M Parvin at his house-warming to morrow evening, at which time a jovial crowd will make the rooms fairly ring with mirth.

The response to the appeal made to our citizens by the finance committee of the state firemen's tournament was certainly very liberal, $1100 being donated for purses alone with a balance left over to meet other necessary expenses.

The skating rink has been leased to Company B O S M as an armory and will at once be fitted up for that purpose. The electric light system will be introduced at once and no pains or expense spared to make their new head quarters both pleasant and convenient.

Our Oregon firemen are especially desirous of meeting the Seattle hose team at the coming state firemen's tournament in a friendly contest for the championship honors of the Northwest coast. It is to be hoped that Chief Kellogg may induce them to come to the front.

Mr W F Bowers, of Portland the agent of the Gutta Percha and Rubber Manufacturing company, of New York, deserves the thanks of the Salem firemen for his donation of $100 as a special prize in the 300 yard wet contest hose race at the coming state firemen's tournament.

The recent concert at Reed's opera house netted the uniform fund of Company B O S M the sum of over $[illegible] which together with the amount already on hand will well nigh be sufficient. The success of the entertainment is in a great measure largely due to the personal efforts of Lieut J A Manning.

Hon E P Earhart secretary of state accompanied by his daughters Misses Clara and Agnes and Miss Bessie Smith and Miss Nellie Gilbert, of this city left on the last steamer for San Francisco where the young ladies will be placed in school at Mills seminary. Mr Earhart is expected home on the return steamer.

Rt. Particulars of the Cowardly Murder of Young Guindon.

A FATHER'S TERRIBLE CRIME.

The Murderer at First Denies the Deed but Afterwards Confesses—News from the Whaling Regions of the North.

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 30—The utmost indignation is being manifested at the miserably stupid and wanton killing early yesterday morning of the young man Eugene F Guindon by George D Gardiner a short account of which was published in yesterday morning's papers. Guindon had escorted Miss Gardiner to the Mechanics fair Saturday night, and returned home with her shortly after midnight. After the couple had bid each other good night and just as Guindon was turning away to proceed to his home the father of Miss Gardiner appeared in the door way [illegible] calling out to Guindon "Hold on young man I've got something to say to you" without further words drew a revolver and fired at Guindon [illegible] entering his neck [illegible] he had missed [illegible] and fired three more shots none of which however took effect. The wounded man ran a short distance when he dropped. Before expiring he stated to those who came to his rescue that he had been shot by Gardiner because as he said "I suppose Gardiner thought I brought his daughter home too late." He had barely uttered the words when he expired.

THE GIRL'S STATEMENT

The statement made by Miss Gardiner is as follows: "When we stopped at my house Eugene bid me good night and I passed up stairs and knocked. My father came to the door and brushing past me said to Eugene who was just leaving 'Hold on young man I've something to say to you' or something like that. Eugene turned around and came back when father drew a pistol and shot him. I think I screamed 'For God's sake, papa, don't!' But I saw Eugene turn and run with my father after him. I then ran into the house to my mother."

Mrs. Gardiner stated that at the time of the shooting her husband must have been intoxicated as he had been drinking for some time past. He came home she claimed and quarreled with her, demanding to know "what time I had told Constance to come home." A little while after she knocked at the door and he went out and shot Eugene.

THE MURDERER

Gardiner immediately after the murder was taken from his house to where the corpse of the murdered man was lying. Gazing calmly at the blood besmeared corpse he said to an officer:

"I never saw the man before in my life."

"Didn't you kill him?"

"No sir I did not."

He was, however taken to prison and locked up in the tanks. Later he admitted the crime and informed the officers that the revolver which he had used could be found under the pillows of his bed. His room was visited by the police and the revolver found where stated.

Guindon has been employed as clerk in the office of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, of which his stepfather, George A Moore, has been president for the past seven years and bears a most excellent reputation for morality and manliness. In his intercourse with ladies he was particularly dignified and modest and the slightest breath of scandal has never rested upon his name. He was a native of California and well known in the best circles of society. He is also well known among amateur journalists. Miss Gardiner is about 17 years of age.

CORONER'S INQUEST

The coroner held an inquest to-day on the case of Eugene F Guindon, who was killed yesterday morning by George D Gardiner. The jury after hearing the testimony of witnesses, returned a verdict charging Gardiner with murder.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

NEWS FROM THE WHALING REGIONS

VICTORIA, Aug 30—The Victoria sealing schooner Alfred Adams has arrived. Her captain reports that he reached Behring sea on July 2d, and left there on the 7th of August. After leaving Nagi, the vessel encountered a submarine volcanic eruption, and was literally showered with ashes. The terrible circumstance caused no little alarm especially to the siwashes who became unusually excited and fell on their knees, saying, "God's angry with us." The phenomenon only lasted about an hour when the atmosphere commenced to clear again.

July 6 the Adams spoke the schooner Silva Hardy and also the schooner Teresa, on the 11th the schooner Adele and on the 23d the schooner Black Diamond. On the 29th the steam whaler Orca was spoken and reported her catch at five whales in five days. She was blubber logged after taking the last one. All were well on board. August 3 the whaling bark Ida T Harriman was spoken. All was well on board, with three catches one sperm and two other whales. The schooner Adele was again spoken on the 4th of August, and told the Adams of the seizure of three schooners by the revenue cutter Corwin. Upon hearing of this Capt. Worth made up his mind that he couldn't get away quickly enough, as he had then over $10 000 worth of skins and wished to avoid trouble and keep for his owners what they were honestly entitled to.

The Victoria schooner Dolphin with 2000 seals, also arrived from Behring sea on Saturday.

LA GRANDE NOTES

LA GRANDE Aug 28.

Latest news from the Wallowa report everything in that part of our county in good order, crops better than expected and lots of red fish in the lake.

Mrs. S M Buck who has been visiting at the Hill farm in the Cove since last June returned to Oregon City on the [illegible] inst where she again resumes her position as one of the teachers in the public school there.

Dr and Mrs J J McDonald so well and favorably known in this county start for an extended visit to Canada and the states the 1st of next month. They carry with them the best wishes of their many friends for a pleasant journey and safe return.

The work of removing buildings from the old town to the new still continues and Mr E. J. Wilbur has removed his livery barn and J P. Clark his store building from the first to the second ward, and Mr W J Snodgrass has another one en route.

The commissioners who were appointed by the legislature to build the Pine valley wagon road, have just returned from an inspection of the same and report everything satisfactorily done on the part of the contractors. The bridge lately destroyed by fire is to be rebuilt by private subscription in and near Union I am informed.

The brick buildings that were to have been erected here are not to be built owing to the failure of Mr Heuston (the party representing himself as owning the brick machine) who was to put the buildings for so much per thousand in the walls. The machine, which is in or near Baker City appears to be tied up in such a manner by some persons having claims against it that it can not be moved, and unless the parties who are desirous of building here can procure brick from other sources we shall have no brick buildings in La Grande this season. Why some enterprising person who understands the manufacturing of brick does not start the business in this immediate vicinity is beyond my ken, as I doubt not but a million of brick could be disposed of this season in and near La Grande. In case parties who intended to erect brick cannot procure them at once they will immediately commence frame buildings. I am informed that Messrs. Higginson & Rogers have succeeded in procuring from Charles Goodnough, of Island City, material enough to erect a nice brick upon their lot, corner Adams avenue and Depot street.

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND TUESDAY, AUG 31, 1886.

NOT WANTED

In our issue of the 21st inst we published a communication from a Russian resident of Spokane Falls, who quoted THE OREGONIAN as saying, "Dynamiters from England, communists from France, socialists from Germany, nihilists from Russia, and scalawags from everywhere, who have made America their rendezvous have notice to quit," and who asked "on what ground we mixed up the nihilists from Russia with all those with whom the nihilists have nothing to do?" We are not ignorant that Russia has been terribly misgoverned, any more than we are ignorant that Ireland has been fearfully wronged; we have no more impeached the motives of the Russian nihilists, or their sincere unselfishness of action, than we impeach the sincerity of the Irish dynamiters and assassins. We have nothing to do with the sincerity or insincerity of people of this sort. Joe Blake, the young Irishman, who stabbed Burke and Cavendish to death, was a sober, smart, intelligent man, a good son and brother, a man against whose name no social or criminal stigma had ever attached; he was as sincere and high spirited an assassin as ever threw a bomb at the czar, stabbed a police superintendent, or sickened in the dungeons of the Neva, the mines of the Ural, or went mad in the horrible life of a Siberian exile. We presume Vera Sassulitch, the well known female nihilist assassin, was as high souled a woman as Charlotte Corday; and yet we believe all such persons, filled with this insane philosophy of seeking to right political wrongs by assassination, are the proper fruit of the gallows, and are not desirable citizens of America or any other country, simply because they are not entirely sane.

The knife was thrust in vain into the heart of Marat; the bomb blew up the czar to no purpose; the dagger of Joe Blake paralyzed Parnell's work for a time; the murder of Lord Leitrim only increased the pains of Ireland, just as the bullet of Booth hardened the heart of the North against the South at the moment when Lincoln, had he lived, would have melted it to tears. The whole philosophy of assassination is a bloody blunder and crime, when undertaken in the name of popular liberty. If public opinion is really behind the dagger there is no need, and, therefore, no excuse, for using it, and if it is not behind it there is certainly no excuse for a few malcontents to butcher the head of a government that has its roots in the hearts of the people.

Political assassination is more absurd and fatal to the welfare of society than even lynch law, for lynch law sometimes has represented the will of the majority, undertaken through irregular courts, but conducted with all the deliberation and solemnity of legal proceedings; but political assassination, whether wrought in Russia or Ireland, in Germany, France, Italy, Spain or America, has always been an act of insane folly, a crime, and a gross blunder, executed under a noble name. And we reiterate that all persons, imbued with this insane political philosophy of righting a great political wrong by dynamite or the dagger, are not wanted in America, because whether sincere or insincere, they have a bee in their bonnet that is liable at any time to sting somebody to death. Do we doubt the sincerity of the Chicago anarchist who kills a policeman in Chicago? No. Do we question his entire sanity? Yes. Do we doubt the sincerity of the Russian nihilist who stabs police officers, blows up the czar, and tries to wreck the imperial train with dynamite? No! Do we doubt his entire sanity? Yes! It is no argument to answer that the Russian and the Irishman have received deep provocation through misgovernment, while the Chicago anarchist has not been wronged at all by the government, because there are all degrees of political insanity, and the difference between the dagger and dynamite in Russia and Ireland, and dagger and dynamite in Chicago is only a difference of degree in the absurd faith that daggers kill kingdoms when they kill kings; that bombs blow up social and political systems when they destroy a czar, or murder a president.

It is not the personal sincerity or insincerity, the provocation or the want of provocation that makes all these creatures welcome or unwelcome. It is the insane philosophy they all hold in common of recasting a government by murder, of terrorizing a tyrant by violence into breaking his sword and surrendering his sceptre. As well might you hope to terrorize a leopard into changing his spots. A tyrant understands what a popular uprising means, even as King John knew what his barons meant when they asked and received the magna charter; but assassination is as absurd and insane an effort to abate political outrages, as it would be to try to destroy the railway system of America by shooting the engineer in his cab.

Now let us look at the picture of a very famous nihilist, Stepniak. A French paper describes him as a man of about 50 years of age, with the figure of an athlete and an enormous head. "His rough beard grows downward from his ears, overrunning his cheeks, without, however, veiling the mouth—the terrible, blood[illegible] mouth of a barbarian. Gen Mezentzeff," said Stepniak, "was assassinated by one of my friends one morning when he was walking with a functionary in the Nevski prospect, which was then rather [illegible]. My friend rushed upon the general, stabbed him with a knife, and jumped into a carriage which was waiting for him. [illegible] comrade [illegible] for rapid flight was the only alternative [illegible] hanged. Nevertheless my friend the assassin took the whip [illegible] 'Don't lash [illegible] can.' And [illegible] afterward pleased with himself [illegible] for he said to him [illegible] a bad fellow."

Now [illegible] Does anybody want [illegible] sentiment [illegible] the plea [illegible] provocation [illegible] men who expect [illegible] free states by the dagger of private assassination rather than by the sword of insurrection, and the voice of a [illegible], are either insane enthusiasts or destructive knaves, and there is no room in America for either class.

Our Russian correspondent ingenuously says that foreign military genius fought and even crowded our Revolutionary war; that the war of 1812 was crowded with foreigners, and that it was the foreigners who fought the bloody battles of the Union. While this has no bearing whatever on the logic of the question whether America should be an asylum for the political assassins of Europe, it is worth while to say that, while France, at war with England, as a matter of self interest, aided America most powerfully with men and money, America owed little or nothing to foreign aid outside of France. The generals who won the revolution were Washington, Greene, Wayne, Arnold, Putnam, Stark, Morgan and Marion. Conway, Charles Lee, Sterling and Gates were incompetents or traitors. Lafayette was a mere daring boy whom Wayne rescued from ruin. Pulaski died like a grenadier, as did DeKalb, at the head of his troops. Steuben was an admirable drill master, but the foreigners in our Revolution, outside of those who were ordered here for selfish reasons of state by France, made no more figure than the foreigners did during our civil war. The statistics of our civil war show that up to the last eighteen months of the war, when the draft forced the payment of large bounties, nine-tenths of our Union army was of American birth and at least eight-tenths American blood. Scarcely an officer of foreign birth won any distinction during the war save Osterhaus and Turchin, but the rest of them from Schurz down to Utassy, who went to Sing Sing, were the fruitful parents of calamity and disgrace.

America wants all sane, self-supporting European emigrants. She wants no political assassins of any sort or description, whether they try to kill the police in Chicago or St. Petersburg.

Mr. T. F. Oakes, vice-president and general manager of the Northern Pacific, said in his recent letter that there was no unfriendly attitude on the part of his company toward Portland and never had been, and the most conclusive proof of this statement, he added, was "found in the fact that the Northern Pacific could any day so arrange its tariff schedules as to cut off from Portland a large part of the trade of Eastern Washington and build up a new distributing center in that territory." The inference was the Northern Pacific was offering Portland special facilities in Eastern Washington. Inquiry, however, develops the fact that this is "taffy," chiefly. The "tariff schedules" have long been so arranged as to cut Portland out of the chief part of the trade of the territory controlled by the Northern Pacific, and though that road has long professed to offer great things to Portland, in fact it has not done so. The Northern, like most other railroads, is working its traffic for "all it will bear," and if its manager thinks he can persuade Portland to believe that his road takes a lively interest in Portland's welfare and prosperity and means to "treat the Oregon metropolis with entire fairness and greatest liberality," just out of pure benevolence, why, then he must suppose Portland to be very green. As matter of fact, the Northern Pacific is steadily cutting under its schedule rates on freight of all descriptions from the East to points in Eastern Washington in order to keep Portland out, and it does this because it gets more money in this than it would get by receiving the freight from Portland through the O R & N. That the Northern pursues this policy is not at all surprising, nor is there real ground for complaint about it. But there is ground for complaint in a policy that consists of professing one thing and doing another.

THE HARVEST.

The season of general harvest is now practically over. There are, as usual, some tardy farmers, but the instances are few where grain is not already safely housed. The season could not have been more favorable. Good weather has been continuous, contributing not only to the convenience of harvesting, but to economy as well. It is still too soon to know much about results in the aggregate, but the general condition is implied in the report which comes from everywhere—"Better than expected." In the Willamette valley particularly the harvest has more than realized the highest hopes. The average is far beyond the expectations of early spring in all the counties, and the surplus for export will exceed that of last year by some thousands of tons. In the Columbia river basin the grain yield has been enormous, and railroad officials who have looked over the field carefully in detail insist that the quantity to be brought to the seaboard will equal that of last year. About Walla Walla and some of the other older centers, it is true, the surplus will not be so great, but in the new country, that is those sections recently penetrated by the rails, the quantity of wheat is something prodigious. So splendidly has the country responded to its new opportunities that the railroad managers are encouraged to further extension of their lines and it is intimated that next spring will witness a boom in branch line building in various parts of the Inland Empire. Among the sections likely to be opened are the Clearwater country and the Big Bend country, whose development, it is estimated, will add many thousands of tons to the annual production of the country. While all the local circumstances are thus favorable it is to be regretted that there seems little prospect for a material advance over the prevailing prices of grain. So far as can be seen, nothing but a war in Europe could advance prices to any important extent and there is small prospect that the difficulty in Bulgaria will develop into more than a local affair.

Of all the productions of the country, hops alone command a high price this year. Not only is the price high but the yield is exceptional in both quantity and quality. The hop harvest is now fairly under way and nothing likely to happen can hinder a splendid return. Growers have been compelled to share the advance with the pickers, who for several years past have accepted small wages in consideration of low prices. A general advance in wages will add about twenty-five per cent to the cost of gathering, and this comes very hard on those hop growers who contracted their product early in the season at low prices and upon the basis of last year's rates for picking. Some of these growers will actually lose money upon the season's crop in spite of the high prices prevailing at this time.

Judge Goodall, of Union county, after a careful personal examination of the Pine creek road, and the circumstances connected with its construction, is of the opinion that there has been extravagance and fraud in the enterprise. Last week (so we learn from the Union Scout), when the commissioners, contractors and all concerned met in Union to finish up the business, the proceedings were disturbed by the service of a writ of injunction at the instance of the Union county court. By this writ the commissioners are restrained from receiving the road or any part thereof, or paying the contractors for their work or any part thereof, until the road is completed as specified in the contract, also inhibiting the payment of any money to the commissioners for numerous trips made to Portland and elsewhere, and for unnecessary time put in on the road; also inhibiting the payment of salary and traveling expenses to the secretary of the commission. The contractors are also enjoined from receiving payment for their work on the road or any part thereof. The complaint alleges that the contract specifying the manner in which the road shall be built has not been complied with, and that at least $7000 of the appropriation has not been properly applied. The matter will come before the circuit court for adjudication. The case, it is said, will be fought bitterly. It would seem that the charges made by residents of Union through THE OREGONIAN some weeks ago were not without some foundation at least.

A rupture between Russia and Germany has been contemplated as one of the possible results of the political complications in Europe of which the Bulgarian affair is an incidental phase. The Russian general, Ignatieff, is reported to have declared recently that since the Berlin treaty Germany had shown herself unfriendly to Russia, and he added: "Bismarck is a more dangerous enemy to us than Napoleon I was, and we must be on our guard, for a war between us and Germany is inevitable. Germany, however, will find that it was a mistake to forfeit Russia's friendship, for between us and the French she will be between two fires." The tone of the whole Russian press is warlike, and the French papers are contemplating with complacency the possibility of a Franco-Russian alliance. La France says: "When the German armies before Moscow encounter the fate of those of Napoleon I., then the French republic will step forward and reclaim Alsace-Lorraine." The Correspondance Republicaine says: "It is evident that the day Russia marches upon Berlin the chassepots will go off of their own accord."

Mr P F Morey is going to offer to light the streets throughout with electricity, putting in an Edison incandescent light at every place where there is now a coal oil lamp and maintaining the electric lights now and hitherto furnished as far back as Third street, at the same cost to the city as at present, provided the common council will give him a contract for two years. That is, he will keep up the electric lights as heretofore and now, and put in Edison electric lights at all places where oil lamps are now used, for $18,000 a year. The inquiry now is, whether this is within a reasonable sum for the service. If it is, Mr Morey's offer ought to be accepted. It is a disgrace to such a city as Portland to have oil lamps and their shabby lights in its streets. Perhaps the Port and Gas company will submit an offer.

"The appearance of Jeff Davis in a Mississippi democratic convention as an apologist for President Cleveland, on the ground of his inexperience in national politics," remarks the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, "is one of those pleasant episodes which serve to remind us from time to time that the memories of the war have been buried and that this is an era of abounding sectional forgiveness and harmony."

Fresh Eastern and Shoalwater bay oysters at Allsky's, 145 First street.

THE ALASKA EVICTION.

Parties just arrived from Alaska pronounce the eviction of Chinese from Douglas island a most heartless and brutal outrage. Its details were savage and ruthless to the last degree. It is even intimated that the poor victims were loaded on the schooners with the expectation and hope that they would never reach their destination alive, and the charge does not seem unreasonable when it is known that the boats were not properly provisioned for the voyage and that when they reached Wrangel their passengers, who for eight days had been kept on short rations, were in a half starved and famished condition. The story of the passage of eight days is most pitiful. There was not space for all to lie down, and in addition to the pangs of hunger, thirst and exposure were the sufferings of bruised bodies and limbs swollen in instances to double their natural size from standing painfully on the crowded decks. A more wretched body of men than the crowd landed at Wrangel cannot be imagined. No usage short of burning at the stake could have exceeded in cruelty that inflicted upon these people by men who boast that their conduct was "attended by no act of violence." If our government does not proceed at once against these outlaws, for such they are, and avenge this gross and cruel proceeding it will merit the contempt of the civilized world.

The seizure of the opium in this city yesterday is another reminder of the inefficiency of our customs system. It is very easy for ships coming here from foreign ports to introduce goods of small bulk and considerable value, and it is suspected that the thing is done continually. This does not imply any fault on the part of the inspectors, since it is practically a matter of impossibility to search ships thoroughly, particularly if they come, as many do, with holds full of coal or rock. Insufficient as the system of inspection is, it is very doubtful if it could be improved. In the present instance the contraband goods came probably via Puget sound, where conditions for smuggling are even more favorable than here.

TALK OF THE TIMES

Opportunity makes the thief. A woman swinging a fat purse on her little finger is an opportunity.—Philadelphia Call.

The cowardice of democracy is shown by the fact that not one influential democratic paper in the East has had the courage to denounce the coalition with the greenbackers in Michigan.—Albany Journal.

Muskrats damage the Erie canal $50,000 worth every year, and yet a bounty of 10 cents per capita would put 50,000 boys to work, and they would exterminate the pests.—Shoe and Leather Reporter.

Honesty and fidelity win in the long run, and the American people are characteristically opposed to hypocrisy and knavery. The administration of Grover Cleveland is a bright beacon of success to his party.—Albany Argus.

Think of Yazoo county, Miss., voting for prohibition! But then probably two-thirds of the people in Yazoo county make their own apple-jack, and the prohibition only applies to the other fellows who have to buy their liquor.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The day of servant girls, as they used to be, has gone by, and whether the home will ever regain the old time quiet air of gentility, when the mistress and the maid each followed their respective avocations in well defined limits, is almost a hopeless one.—Duluth News.

The body of an Egyptian king was taken from its tomb recently, where it had reposed 3000 years, and examined. An inscription in an ancient language was found upon his breast, which some affirm states that he was a civil service reformer.—Macon Telegraph.

Trade languishes, the working people are dissatisfied because poorly paid, and the demand for a discontinuance of robbery by the tariff, for the benefit of the few and to the hurt of the many, grows more powerful every day.—Charleston (S C) News and Courier.

But having proved the competence of our institutions to punish and repress actual outbreaks of crime, we may confidently leave to calm, economic discussion the task of uprooting those social fallacies, a blind belief in which has brought these men to face a felon's death.—Providence Journal.

All of his good luck hitherto would be a trifle compared to the luck of carrying the national convention of 1888 in favor of his renomination. But his luck is miraculous, any way, and it may possibly hold out till then. Finally, it is a good thing to have luck, but the greatest thing is to have brains.—N Y Sun.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Rev Dr Richard Storrs, of Brooklyn, will soon celebrate the fortieth anniversary of his pastorate in the Church of the Pilgrims. Henry Ward Beecher's term at Plymouth church is almost as long.

There is nothing new under the sun. Some [illegible] archæologist has lately brought to light a papyrus novel written 1600 years before Christ. The "scene of the story" is laid in a period 1000 years earlier than the time of the author.

"Just throw me half a dozen of the biggest of those trout," said a citizen to the fish dealer. "Throw them?" queried the dealer. "Yes, and then I'll go home and tell my wife that I caught 'em. I may be a poor fisherman, but I'm no liar."

The London World says "it is quite true that the queen intends to make Prince Alexander, of Bulgaria, a Knight of the Garter." In view of recent happenings in Bulgaria it would seem that an entire suit of clothes would be more acceptable to the deposed prince.

John Sharp, of Salt Lake City, who is a director of the Union Pacific road, has been deposed from a bishopric in the Mormon church for promising to obey the law against polygamy. Bishop Sharp has been the chief business manager of the Mormon community for many years.

Mr Henry Clews is writing a book which is to give his experiences in Wall street and sketch the careers of other noted stock exchange men, past and present. If Mr Clews can sell a copy to every man he has helped victimize in Wall street his book will have a tremendous run.

The statement is in print that the celebrated ex Gov Pinchback, of Louisiana, may be seen any day at the races in [illegible] carrying on the business of a professional book maker. In his slave days Pinchback was himself put up as stakes in a game of draw poker on a Mississippi steamboat and changed masters then and there.

During her stay in Rio Brazil, Sarah Bernhardt performed twenty five times. The total receipts were $[illegible], of which $[illegible] went for expenses, leaving $86,000 for the manager and $27,000 for Sarah. She was recalled during her performances more than two hundred times. At the request of the emperor she will return to Rio in September to play twice a week in "Hernani."

Press Hits

The anarchists have one good trait. They hang together.—Philadelphia North American.

A New York policeman has challenged Sullivan to fight. We suggest that the challenge be accepted and the policeman be allowed to use his club.—New Haven News.

It begins to look as if the billboard nuisance would soon have to give way to those English lords who have gone into the business of advertising burlesque actresses by walloping their husbands.—Boston Herald.

"Do you realize, sir," said the long-haired passenger, "that there is one who sees and hears all we do, who can solve our inmost thoughts and before whom we are but crushed and bruised worms?" "Give us your hand, stranger," replied the other, "I know just how you feel. I'm married myself."—New York Sun.

Omaha Man—"So you have spent the summer at an Eastern seaside resort." Omaha Miss—"Yes, we were there from the 1st of May." "I have never seen the ocean. What is the principal amusement in those coast towns?" "Watching people enjoy themselves." "What people?" "Those who haven't been there long, of course."—Omaha World.

A Cure of Pneumonia.

Mr F H Barnaby of Owego N Y says that his daughter was taken with a violent cold which terminated with Pneumonia and all the best physicians gave the case up and said she could live but a few hours at most. She was in this condition when a friend recommended DR WM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS and advised her to try it. She accepted it as a last resort and was surprised to find that it produced a marked change for the better and by persevering a permanent cure was effected.

Hardships of the Rich

"These labor strikes are wicked," remarked a manufacturer, "absolutely wicked, and every striker should be imprisoned."

"Have your men struck," he was asked.

"No, but I want to make a trip through Europe and I can't leave for fear they will."

A Man with Brains and Conscience

Will drop petty prejudices carelessly picked up when truth knocks at the door. Such are invited to try one pair of "Hanan's" shoes. We know the result: every man who wants the best and finest article in the market will become a perpetual "Hanan" man. Eggert, Young & Co, special agents for Portland.

MISS DuBOIS' CONCERT.

The accompanying programme of the concert next Friday evening indicates that Miss Belle DuBois is sparing no exertions to give an entertainment that will be of interest alike to the lovers of ballads and to those interested in operatic music. The selections from "Norma," "La Traviata" and "Hamlet" would in themselves make an excellent programme. Especial attention is to be given to the stage setting of the act from "Traviata" and as the music is peculiarly adapted to the style of singing of both Miss DuBois and Mr Lowndsdale much will be expected of this number

THE COURTS.

COUNTY COURT

In the matter of the estate of J A Chapman deceased ordered that the administrator sell eight shares of stock of the Multnomah street railway company at public or private sale

In the matter of the guardianship of Bertha Ziegler a minor ordered that the next of kin of said ward appear September 27 in the county court at 10 o'clock A. M., to show cause why Marie Ziegler the guardian, should not sell lot 16 block 41 in the town of Sellwood according to a petition filed therein.

Anton Bischoffsberger, John Fish and Jacob Scherner were appointed appraisers of the estate of Marie Katzdobler, deceased

POLICE COURT

In the police court yesterday Charles McLaughlin and Tim Garwood were fined $5 each for drunkenness. Garwood stated that he had been drinking a little too much and had laid down on a wharf to sober up but with the permission of the watchman In passing on the case, Judge Denny remarked that he would try the effect of a light sentence and warned McLaughlin and Garwood not to appear before him soon again. The case of John Lature charged with fighting with John Moran was continued for hearing until Monday. Moran failed to appear and his bail was forfeited. John Gallagher pleaded guilty to assault and battery on Capt. Hienes and was fined $5 which he paid. Libbie Schaldt and W... John ... waived examination to appear before the grand jury on a charge of lewd cohabitation. Their bonds were fixed at $500 each and failing to ... were committed to the county jail

THE STAGE.

NEW MARKET THEATRE—A fair audience was present last evening to witness the first representation of a play new to Portlanders entitled "The Medium." As has been stated in THE OREGONIAN it bears a close resemblance to "The Private Secretary," and would be generally taken for a version of that play though the dialogue is not nearly so crisp nor the action so rapid. The company which is a good one did not all seem to be quite enough with their lines but this is probably incident of a first performance. Mr Page as Professor Parish (the Medium) was very amusing. He is a comedian of excellent powers and his make up action and situations were ludicrous in the extreme. Mr Chapp ... Richard S ... and Miss Lottie ... as Mrs Fairweather were very well done. Mr Cooper was evidently suffering with a severe cold but he gave a passable delineation of the irascible uncle. The remainder of the cast was fair. "The Medium" to-night.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

W. W. PIPER KILLED.—A Wyoming paper received at THE OREGONIAN office yesterday, contains the following clipping from the Laramie Sentinel: "W. W. Piper, a man some 50 years of age, who was on his way from Portland Oregon, to Ohio after exhibiting signs of insanity finally rushed to the platform and jumped from the train near Mendicino Bow, Monday morning [Aug. 9], and died in a few minutes from the injuries received." Yesterday Postmaster Roby received a letter from Mrs. Mary E. Hisey of Kenton, Ohio, enclosing a letter to a Mr. Bryan whose initials and whose business she did not know, begging the postmaster if he could, to get the letter to Mr. Bryan. Mrs. Hisey is a sister of W. W. Piper and is very desirous of knowing, from some one who saw Mr. Piper just before he left Portland for Ohio the state of his mind, his feelings and his means, or whether he had money enough for his journey home. "On the afternoon of Aug. 9, she received a telegram stating that he had been killed. She says: "I telegraphed back, if his remains were in good condition to send them here. If not, to bury him to rest there we supposing of course, he had plenty of money with him for all present needs. They then telegraphed back that they could not send him here on account of his condition and buried him there. The coroner writes to me that my brother had one nickel in a little purse and yesterday his effects reached here with one cent in a little purse that looks as if he had had it for years. Now this is a strange story to tell of a man traveling that distance with one cent in his pocket." Mrs. Hisey cannot free her mind from the suspicion that her brother was murdered. Mr Piper is the well known architect.

SUIT ON A BIG LOAN.—Last week Balfour Guthrie & Co began suit in the United States circuit court against Jonathan Bourne Jr. to recover $18,551.26 and to sell certain securities. The complaint states that May 28, 1883 Bourne chartered the British ship Bargany 123 tons ... K, for 65 shillings that he instructed plaintiffs to load her with wheat on his account which they did and sold the cargo. The net loss on the transaction was $8,1... On January 9 1884, on account of this transaction Bourne opened an account with Balfour Guthrie & Co agreeing to pay 10 per cent interest. The account continued till Aug 1st 21 1886, when, less sundry payments he was indebted to them in the sum of $18,551.26 the amount sued for. To secure the account Bourne on November 23 1883, executed to Walter J Burns agent for Balfour Guthrie & Co, an absolute deed but in reality a trust deed intended as a mortgage conveying the undivided two thirds of blocks 1, 2 and 4 and six lots in block 3 in Bourne's addition to the city of Portland (a tract near the boneyard) and on April 8 1884 a similar deed for forty acres on Mt. Tabor. He also pledged 50 shares of U. C. & B. T. company stock and Jan 3 10,000 shares of Divided Car Axle company stock. Plaintiffs ask that the property and securities be sold to pay the indebtedness. John L. Dunn who holds a mortgage of $10,000 on the property in Bourne's addition dated Feb 20 1883 is made a party to the suit

BAD SIDEWALKS AGAIN.—Anent an item in these columns yesterday about bad sidewalks and a remedy for them Councilman Woodward yesterday prepared the following resolution which will be introduced at the council meeting to-morrow night: "Resolved, That the city attorney be and he is hereby directed to prepare and submit to this body an opinion on the question of authority possessed by the city in relation to repair of sidewalks and streets showing whether the city can order and compel a property owner to make such repairs to either the street or sidewalk as may be deemed needful or proper by the city authorities at said property owner's individual expense or not and the manner of procedure to cause such needful or proper repairs to either sidewalk or street." It is to be hoped for the benefit of the public, that a law will be found requiring repairs to be made. That sidewalks in a city of Portland's size and pretentions should ever be dangerous to pedestrians is shameful. The principal trouble is from loose planks. Probably no general growl would result if the city paid for a dollar's worth of nails and the labor of driving them. No doubt Bill Braden would do the work cheerfully

PARLIAMENTARY FUND.—The parliamentary fund committee met last evening at Hibernia hall to make final arrangements for the proposed demonstration on the 8th of September. The committee working as a committee of the whole, spent the greater part of the evening in arranging a list of vice presidents, which were adopted. Invitations will be issued forthwith and the names published as soon as notice of acceptance is received. The Casino opera house has been engaged for the occasion, it having a larger seating capacity than New Market theater. A list of the speakers was submitted which will be published later on. All the societies participating in the preliminary meetings at Cabalin's hall on July 11 and 18 were extended a cordial invitation to be present, and were authorized to choose one of their members to act as honorary vice president to officiate on the occasion. The address of the committee will be published some time during the coming week. The committee on printing were authorized to print posters advertising the demonstration. All the preliminaries having been arranged the committee adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock next Sunday afternoon

AN OREGON SHEEP RAISER MURDERED.—The Ketchum (Idaho) Keystone of a recent date contains an account of the murder of Paul Klubert, an Oregon sheep raiser, by a man named Frank Armstrong near a place called Arco Saturday evening, August 21st. Armstrong had been working for Klubert and was discharged at Bellevue Saturday night. Klubert camped on the road near Arco and the next morning was found murdered and Armstrong was missing. Armstrong hid in the hills until Monday night, when he came to Era for food and was arrested and turned over to Deputy Sheriff Cowan. He confessed that he did the deed and said two herders hired him to do it for $25 and that they afterwards were to run off with the stock. The herders—Blakely and Lyons—were subsequently arrested. The trio are in jail at Hailey

MRS HOLLAND WINS TEMPORARILY.—Frank Paxton the referee in the case of Margaret Holland vs Ellen Day et al, has filed his report in the state circuit court, and a motion has been made to confirm the same. Mrs Holland brought suit against Mrs Day and minor children to determine the ownership of a strip of land at Thirteenth and Market streets, the title to which has long been in dispute between the Hollands and Days. The referee reports in favor of Mrs Holland. The parties some months ago endeavored to settle the matter among themselves and the result was a spirited contest known as the war in Gander ridge. After the various justices courts and the police court had been appealed to, and a dozen or more criminal cases growing out of the tearing down of a fence were disposed of the civil action was brought.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—Nels Hokansson yesterday brought suit in the United States circuit court against the Clatsop Mill company to recover $10,000. He alleges that on and previous to November 22 1885 he was employed by defendant and was lodged in a building unsafe in all particulars for the lodgment of a human being. He being an ignorant man and relying upon the superior judgment of his employers lodged in the house above named. On the night of the 22d of November 1885 while the defendant was sleeping therein the building fell upon him causing him serious and permanent injuries which have incapacitated him from performing any kind of work. He is also yet suffering bodily from the injuries so sustained and is under constant expense for medicines. For all of this he demands the amount above named

DOMESTIC CASE IN COURT.—Not long since Leo A Pleasance was arrested and tried before Justice Bushwiler for alleged assault and battery on his son Frederick, about 18 years old. This was the second charge of the kind preferred against him by the boy. Now the same domestic trouble is upon the county court. Yesterday Mr and Mrs. Pleasance were cited to appear before the county court at 10 o'clock A. M., September ... to show cause why W. T. Shanahan should not be appointed guardian of the person and estate of said Frederick. A petition filed in the case sets forth that Leo A. and Agnes H. Pleasance parents of said minor are both unsuitable and incompetent to act as his guardian

FIGHT IN THE JOSS HOUSE.—Just after the police court had adjourned yesterday Wah Ki a Chinaman put in an appearance in the judge's office with the request that a warrant be issued for the arrest of Ah Ging on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. Wah Ki's face and head were covered with blood which flowed freely from a bad scalp wound. He and Ah Ging were engaged in playing dominoes in the joss house and had a dispute over the game. Ging proceeded to settle it by beating Ki over the head with an iron bar. The warrant asked for was issued. Gambling for money has long been carried on openly in the joss house and might be stopped. It is not likely however, that it will be

REASON NOT MONEY LOST.—Margaretta Oscolla the Italian woman accused by John Gerspach of taking $10 from him and refusing to return it when requested was tried in Justice Tuttle's court yesterday and acquitted. Gerspach acted as if he was not in his right mind. He started in by saying that he lost the money about a year ago and then went on with a rambling statement to the effect that he didn't take any money for his work and even if he did the spirits would not allow him to keep any money. As Gerspach was arrested Sunday and locked up in the city jail on a charge of drunkenness, possibly that portion of his story relating to the influence spirits have over him is true

VERY ILL.—Several days ago J. K. Ewing the bookseller went to Tillamook for the purpose of bringing his family who have been sojourning there back to Portland. Saturday evening, shortly after his arrival at Tillamook, Mr Ewing was taken dangerously ill and word was sent to Portland for a physician to go down there but none of our practitioners here feel that they can leave their patients long enough to make such a trip. The exact nature of Mr Ewing's ailment was not learned but it is said he took a very long walk and probably strained himself or got overheated and caught cold. He is too ill to be moved

THROUGH TWO WHARVES.—Runaway teams are doing extraordinary things nowadays and yesterday was no exception. On the east side a team ran into the river. On this side yesterday afternoon Ham Ray's team started with a loaded truck at Ainsworth wharf ran all the way through it then along the roadway to steamship wharf then through the wharf to the south end and then through the office. A clerk in the office was so badly scared that his hair turned red. Beyond this and a few smashed boards no damage resulted

TOOK TEN DAYS.—In Justice Tuttle's court yesterday Thomas Daly was tried and convicted of breaking the panel out of a door on the premises of Antone Mandens and was fined $20. As Daly's exchequer is in a rather depleted condition, he concluded that as the summer days have not yet passed, to take a vacation for ten days, and as a matter of necessity chose the county jail as the place in which to seclude himself from the public gaze

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—The county board of equalization met yesterday and will remain in session all week. The following have been cited to appear before them to testify as to property in their possession or under their control subject to taxation: F. C. Smith, Smith Bros & Watson, Edward Failing, Corbett & Failing, Columbia River Paper Co., Robert Clegborn, F. Opitz, Isadore Lang, Lang Bros, Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Co., E. W. Low, and the Oregon and Washington Savings bank

THREATENING TO KILL.—Yesterday morning Custave Seaman a sailor on the American ship Vallejo was tried in Justice Wilson's court at Albina on a charge of threatening to kill the captain Joseph Harding. Seaman got drunk, abused the captain and made threats as above mentioned. He was bound over to keep the peace in the sum of $100 and as he couldn't furnish the bond he was committed to the county jail

OUT AND IN.—Mr. J. C. Tolman leaves to-day for his old home in Ashland. He has served in the capacity of surveyor general of Oregon for eight years and is the only man in the state who filled the office for two terms. Mr Tolman has interests in the Pine creek mines and will devote himself to their development. His successor Mr D. W. Taylor is installed in office.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—Mrs Mary C. Nind of Minneapolis secretary of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the northwestern branch will deliver an address in Grace chapel corner of Tenth and Taylor on this (Tuesday) evening. Mrs Nind is one of the most eloquent speakers in the country and is visiting all the western conferences in Methodism

FLOWER MISSIONS.—A regular meeting of the Flower Mission will be held to-morrow (Wednesday) morning at 10 o'clock in the Unitarian chapel. Special business is to be transacted hence a full attendance of members is urged

OPIUM SMUGGLERS CAPTURED

Treasury Officials Seize Ninety-five Pounds of the Drug which got here without Paying Duty

Last night at 5 o'clock custom house officers seized ninety five pounds of contraband or smuggled opium in the store of Quong Sang Wo at Second and Alder streets and arrested two Chinamen on a charge of smuggling. One of the officers first managed to get into the rear of the store and obtain possession of the contraband goods, and another officer followed in a minute afterwards through the front door and made the arrest. A Celestial thought to be a member of the firm tried to give the alarm but was quickly stopped from doing so by an officer placing his hand over his mouth. The capture is one of the most important that has been made here for some time. The opium which is valued at somewhere in the neighborhood of $1,000 is now in the hands of the collector of this port and the two Chinamen arrested were taken to the city jail and locked up for safe keeping. It is supposed the opium was traced here from Victoria by Puget sound officers as it came direct from Victoria.

According to all accounts the business of smuggling from Victoria to Portland is carried on extensively although utmost diligence is used by the customs officers to catch the Chinamen engaged in the unlawful traffic. They ship it by small boats sometimes as far as Olympia then run it over as far as Tenino and from there to Kalama and thence by boat to Portland. This is, however probably only one of a dozen routes by which it is brought here. It passes through a dozen or more hands, and the parties engaged in smuggling it do not live here as a general thing. Opium is brought from China to Victoria in a crude state, and there is only a small duty on it. In Victoria it is prepared for smoking purposes, and after having been prepared is worth $8 a pound in Victoria and from $12 to $14 in Portland. Our Portland Chinamen import some opium direct and on this they pay the duty of $10 a pound, procuring the stamps to put on the boxes at the custom house. Before opening a box of opium that has been properly stamped, they remove the stamp by means best known to themselves. This they generally do when selling a box the customer often purchasing, not caring whether there is a stamp on the box or not. These stamps are used the second time that is put on the smuggled boxes from Victoria so that if a custom house officer calls all the boxes on hand are found to bear stamps. The seizure was made last night before the Chinese had time to affix the stamps although they were prepared to do so in short order two boxes of the contraband stamps being found on the premises

It is understood that several detectives of the treasury department have been tracking the illicit operators for weeks. The officers are very reticent about this transaction and it is presumed there are other "hens on" which they do not wish to shoo off the nest. The seized opium was taken shortly after dark from some building in the lower end of the city near the Kalama freight depot and carried by the two Chinamen to Second and Alder. They were trailed from their starting place to their destination. The store of Quong Sang Wo was taken charge of by Collector Shurtleff, and D. F. Tackaberry placed there as keeper

A TRUSTY GAME KEEPER.

How he Watched the Shooting Preserves of a Portland Sportsman

Last Saturday Judge Whalley went down to Mox's bottom, the hunting privileges of which he has leased for the season, to see what the prospects were for ducks, preparatory to killing a few late this week. It was provided in the lease that Mox should furnish a game keeper for the place. Hoping to kill a few snipe Whalley took his gun along. Pretty soon a fish duck rose in the air and more for the pleasure of hearing the report of his gun than anything else he fired. Of course the duck fell. In less than ten seconds a man appeared on the hill, waving his arms, running toward the huntsman and yelling large holes in the air with every step.

"Git out of here. Git out, quick. You can't do no shootin' round these premises," shouted the man as he got within speaking distance. It rather pleased Whalley to learn that his preserve was being guarded and he determined to try the man's mettle. Putting on a bold front, he answered

"I didn't shoot anything."

The man's black eyes flashed fire as he answered, "You're a liar. I heard you shoot and I seen the duck fall. Now, git out o' here."

"Well it was only a fish duck," was the sullen reply.

"Fish duck or no fish duck you can't shoot here. Can't you read the notices?"

"Well this is tide land, and you can't put me off," argued the judge.

"Now, lookey here. I know all about tide land, and timber land and swamp land and you can't gimme any game like that. Now git over the fence, and git quick."

"And suppose I don't go, what then?" queried the sportsman.

"Well, I'm not paid for fighting," was the answer, "but I'm just big enough to put you over the fence and I'll do it if you don't go yourself mighty soon."

"I guess you'll do," said Whalley as he extended his hand to the vigilant game-keeper. "My name's Whalley and these are my grounds for this season."

TO CELEBRATE HER CENTENARY

SYDNEY N. S. W. Aug 30.—The government have introduced in parliament a bill providing for celebration of the centenary of New South Wales in January, 1888. It is proposed that the programme of attractions for the occasion shall include a carnival regatta, universal exhibition, musical festival, review of colonial forces athletic sports, etc. The celebration will be conducted on the grandest scale. The Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family, and members of the governments and parliaments of Canada and other British colonies, will be invited.

BULGARIA.

Something about its History, its Political, Religious and Educational Systems—A Good Country for Doctors.

During the past week the eyes of the world have been directed toward that little state lying between Russia and Turkey and so ardently coveted by both as a possession. A lecture of deep interest in itself and peculiarly apropos to the times was delivered on Sunday evening in the First Presbyterian church by Mr. Ivan Balabanoff a native of Bulgaria.

Mr Balabanoff is a graduate of Hamilton college, New York, and is at present pursuing the study of medicine with a view of returning to his native land as a medical missionary. The name of Bulgaria is a corruption of Volgaria, the country watered by the Volga. Of Sclavonic descent they have preserved their individuality with difficulty and through long centuries of grievous bondage have but begun to feel the throbs of national life under their young Prince Alexander. Falling under the Turkish rule in 1453 for 408 years the people of Bulgaria were enslaved to a degree that almost passes belief. The Turk used them as beasts of burden. Taxes of the most oppressive description were levied and collected by a process of "farming out" the people by wholesale. The oppression of the Turk in political affairs was equaled by the Greek church in its conducting educational and religious matters. In 1767 the Greek church obtained control of all schools and places of public worship and tried to obliterate Bulgarian literature by burning every book and record. The study of the Greek language was made compulsory in the schools and for a hundred years the young men of Bulgaria who gained an education did so in the schools of Athens and Corinth. Fifty years ago not one in a hundred of the most prominent citizens could even sign his own name, and within twenty five years the accounts of public officers were kept by means of a knife and stick, so that a tax collector sallied forth laden with a huge load of these sticks to collect the taxes of his district. There is no preaching in the Greek church and the services are performed in a perfunctory way by an ignorant priesthood. The Sclavonic bible used is in a text upwards of three hundred years old, well nigh obsolete and difficult of understanding when read clearly but absolutely unintelligible as read or intoned by the priest. There are no seats in their churches nor are they heated. Service lasts from three to four hours and with a temperature of 15 degrees below zero the discomfort is great. Bible owning is discouraged by the priests and the people are practically without light in their religion. Yet this makes the conversion of the people the more difficult in that they are all baptized members of the church at the age of 8 days and calling themselves Christians already are slow to receive the truth in its purity.

In 1858 American missionaries entered Bulgaria and a change of wonderful extent began. Previous to that time but little knowledge of the outside world penetrated this clouded land. There were no postoffices no railroads, no newspapers nor aught that could bring in or diffuse information. The Turkish policy was averse to development and all railroads in Bulgaria to-day are owned and operated by European capital chiefly Austrian and obtained their franchise on condition that after the cost of construction and interest thereon was paid the railroads would revert to the Turkish government. This payment was astutely deferred till the Turkish rule was broken and the lines which are being opened up all over the country are in the hands of the companies still.

Knowledge came with the opening up of missionary schools. The bible was translated into the Bulgarian tongue and found a rapid sale though few could read it then.

The establishment at Constantinople by an American citizen, of Roberts College has done more than any other educational measure to advance the civilization and raise the status of Bulgaria. There are about two hundred students, 100 being Bulgarians. The graduates have had from the first the confidence of the people and under the new regime a very large proportion of the positions of public trust are filled by these young men familiar with and favorably disposed to the American system of political economy.

The climate of Bulgaria corresponds closely to that of New York state. Its scenery is beautifully diversified. Standing on the Balkan mountains the eye sweeps over a fair and fertile country, gently rolling well wooded a valuable consideration at this day, and watered by many a fair lake and silver stream. The productions of the soil are abundant, alike in grains and fruits. In the southern portion many tropical varieties flourish. The mineral fields are rich, and entirely undeveloped, as yet, owing to the policy of the Turk in this, as in other affairs.

To-day Bulgaria stands, if swallowed up by Russia, to become another Poland, if free under her brave and educated young prince, to go forward with rapid strides toward her place among the nations of the world with the cardinal points of national liberty, in state and church. Nowhere is there a greater need for missionary effort. Especially valuable is medical missionary work since in a population of over 2,000,000 there are but 130 practicing physicians and fully one half of these are ignorant. Cosmopolitan as is the population of these United States there are within its boundaries but thirty native Bulgarians, and none of these have hitherto been west of the Mississippi.

THE EAST SIDE.

EXCITING AND SERIOUS RUNAWAY

One of the most exciting and serious runaways ever witnessed in this city took place about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The circumstances are nearly as follows. Shortly after 12 o'clock Mrs Wash Love wife of the dairyman of Columbia slough accompanied by her little four year old daughter widow Love and Misses Walker and Davis, started to this city in a light spring wagon. When reaching the boundary line between Albina and East Portland the horses became frightened and unmanageable, and ran at a frightful rate down Fourth street. When about half way between Holladay avenue and Fourth street bridge, Mrs. Love widow Love the little girl and Miss Walker were thrown out of the wagon but fortunately not seriously injured. The horses continued their mad career down Fourth street running into an express wagon at the corner of F street, knocking off a wheel and doubling up the axle. All this time Miss Davis was heroically hanging on to the wagon bed. The excitement was intense when the horses turned down I street towards the Stark street ferry for at this point the spectators expected to see the young lady dashed from the wagon and horribly mangled. But fortunately this did not happen. As the team ran towards the ferry many ineffectual efforts were made to stop it. When it was seen that the team was making for the ferry slip, a cry was set up for the young lady to jump out. This she succeeded in doing partly by leaping and partly by falling and without any very serious injury, save a few bruises occasioned by jolting. The frightened horses made a straight run for the river and despite every effort put forth to head them off kept on. When the runaway reached the pontoon the ferryboat was just coming in from the west side and was not more than thirty feet from the landing. There were several teams and wagons standing on the pontoon and the runaways collided with two vehicles, detaching the forewheels from the hind ones. With only the tongue and forward wheels they dashed ahead and leaping over the edge of the landing, plunged into the river.

Capt Robinson of the ferry says that the team was coming into the river in spite of all. He stopped the boat before it reached the pontoon. Ropes were quickly procured and thrown immediately over the heads of the horses. By this means they were kept afloat for the weight of the wheels would have inevitably dragged both down to death. In a few moments the harness was cut but one horse struggled so violently that he was carried under and drowned notwithstanding every effort that could be put forth to rescue the animal. The other horse was finally got ashore a wetter if not a wiser animal. Of course that part of the wagon which was attached to the team was fished out none the worse for the wild dash. The bed and hind wheels were left on the pontoon where the collision had occurred. The animal that perished was a valuable one. Had the ferryboat reached the landing when the team ran down the pontoon in all probability many persons who were standing on the apron of the boat would have been killed or seriously injured. One of the ladies in the wagon is reported to have lost a purse containing several dollars in gold and silver coin and it would seem that she was correct as some boys who reside near where the ladies were thrown out of the wagon picked up several pieces of silver and a $5 gold piece which they found in the road between that place and the bridge over Sullivan's gulch. A boy by the name of O'Maley living on Fourth street near Holladay avenue, is said to have found the $5 gold piece. Another boy named Howe picked up some silver another named Hughes 30 cents another named Donley found a silver dollar and three 10 cent pieces. Some of the boys had the money in their possession and exhibited it to the reporter for this paper and other parties

SCHOOL DISTRICT DIVIDED

A short time after the election of the new board of directors of school district No. 31, which comprises Holladay addition and Albina the question of dividing the district was freely discussed and a petition prepared and circulated which received a large number of signatures asking the county superintendent to divide the district. This was presented, and on Saturday last Mrs Gove having given the subject due consideration granted an order dividing district No 31 and creating a new district numbered 49 which comprises all that part of the old district situated in the city of East Portland parts of sections 24 and 36 and all of section 25 town 1 north range 1 east. The change seems to give great satisfaction to the residents on this side the line dividing the city from Albina.

PROF WETZELL RETURNED

Prof W. A. Wetzell and wife who have been spending about a month in California, returned yesterday morning on the steamer State of California. He is in excellent health but she is suffering from the effects of seasickness which commenced the first day out from San Francisco the sea being rough until Saturday morning when they reached the Columbia bar. They report having made a short visit to San Jose and Santa Rosa all the rest of the time being spent in San Francisco. Besides witnessing the ceremonies of the G. A. R. encampment Mr Wetzell had the pleasure of meeting Col Francis W. Parker of Quincy fame and attending a five days institute conducted by him in San Francisco and Oakland. This meeting was attended by about two thousand teachers from San Francisco and Alameda counties. Mr Parker has a national reputation as a teacher and is doing an immense amount of good for the public schools of our land. Mr Wetzell also had the pleasure of listening to a very scholarly lecture by N. A. Calkins superintendent of public schools of New York city, on the modern ideas of an education. He also spent two weeks in visiting the best schools of San Francisco and Oakland and gathered many valuable hints. It must not be supposed for a moment that he considers the schools of East Portland inferior to any of the schools he visited for he does not. Mr Wetzell considers his visit to the Golden state one of great value to him in his school work especially as he has been enabled to meet some of the foremost educators of this country

COMMENCEMENT OF SCHOOL

The fall term of the public schools of Holladay's addition and Albina commenced yesterday with Miss Packard as principal of the former and Prof W. A. Wash of the latter. The attendance at the Holladay addition school was 160 and at Albina 185. This is considered rather light but the number will be greatly increased during the week. Nothing was done to-day except to organize for work. To-morrow the classes will be formed and the regular course of instruction commenced. The principals of the respective schools desire to impress upon the minds of the parents the necessity of having the children present at the commencement of the term so that they may be assigned to their proper classes

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

At the close of the services at the M. E. Church yesterday morning Mrs. Nancy C. Nind corresponding secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society who occupied the pulpit after presenting the claims of the society upon the members of the church urged upon them the necessity of organizing a branch in this city after which several ladies belonging to the church and congregation signed their names to a call for the organization and Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock was appointed for them to meet at the M. E. church for the purpose of perfecting the organization. Mrs. Nind, and Mrs. Wire of Salem conference secretary of the W. F. M. S. will be present to assist

CONFLICT OF COURTS.

A Douglas County Man Seeks to Balk a Decree of the U. S. Circuit Court

On the 14th of this month Daniel W. Applegate of Douglas county began suit in the state circuit court for that county against B. F. Dowell, to enjoin him from asserting his title to a certain forty acres of land which Dowell claimed under a judgment lien in the U. S. circuit court. A temporary injunction was granted. Last week while Judge Deady was absent, Dowell filed a petition in the U. S. circuit court against Applegate asking that he be required to appear and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of the circuit court of the United States.

The case runs back three years and briefly told is as follows. In the United States circuit court January 5 1884 a decree was rendered in favor of Dowell, in the case of Dowell vs Jesse Applegate and others subjecting the lands of Jesse Applegate to the lien of the judgment which Dowell had obtained against Applegate and others in the state court for half the amount which Dowell had paid on the judgment of the State of Oregon vs Samuel E. May and his bondsmen. The lands were sold by W. B. Gilbert master in chancery and bought in by Dowell.

Jesse Applegate had deeded the forty acres now in litigation to W. H. H. Applegate among other lands. W. H. H. re-deeded this forty acres to Daniel W. Applegate. This deed was not set up in Dowell's suit either by himself as plaintiff or by the defendants, hence was not adjudicated upon but the deed from Jesse Applegate to W. H. H. Applegate was set aside. Daniel W. claims that he owns the land in fee simple because the second deed was not adjudicated upon. Dowell claims that Daniel W. should have set up the deed he being one the defendants to the suit and having failed to do so he can not now set it up in a new suit nor claim any title to it.

Daniel W. not only sued Dowell to restrain him from interfering with the land but restraining him from applying to the United States circuit court for a writ of assistance to put him in possession of the land which the decree of the court and the law both allow him.

Yesterday Judge Deady made the following order in Dowell's petition: "Upon reading and filing the foregoing petition and a certified copy of the decree of this court in the case of B. F. Dowell vs Jesse Applegate and others dated January 5, 1884 and hearing Mr B. F. Dowell for himself it is ordered that said Daniel W. Applegate be and appear before the circuit court of the United States for the district of Oregon at the United States court rooms in the city of Portland on the tenth day after service on said Applegate of a copy of the said petition and decree, and this order at 10 o'clock in the forenoon thereof, if the same is a court day or as soon thereafter as the court may be in session, then and there to show cause why a writ of assistance should not issue from said court, to put said B. F. Dowell in possession of the forty acre tract of land described in said petition, in pursuance of said decree and the sale and conveyance thereunder to said Dowell and also to show cause why he the said Daniel W. Applegate should not be punished as for contempt in obtaining the injunction from the circuit court of the state of Oregon for the county of Douglas as stated in said petition to restrain said Dowell from getting a writ of assistance from said United States circuit court to put him in possession of said forty acre tract of land as against said Daniel W. Applegate.

Commissioner Black.

New York Evening Post.

It is an open secret that the president and Secretary Lamar are very anxious to get rid of Gen. Black, the commissioner of pensions. He, on the other hand, is not disposed to resign until he can obtain the democratic nomination for governor of Illinois, or the mission to Austria. He has now gone to California and his subordinates are endeavoring to get the office into some kind of shape. Having obtained from congress a large pension on the ground that he is a physical wreck, he has endeavored to wreck the whole pension system, and to some extent has been successful.

A Tried Remedy for Biliousness.

Those who suffer from disorder or inaction of the liver will never get the upper hand of the unruly organ so long as they use such irrational remedies as blue pill calomel and podophyllin. But from the tried and popular medicine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they may expect relief with certainty of obtaining it. The influence of the Bitters upon the great biliary gland is direct, powerful and speedily felt. The relief afforded is not spasmodic, but complete and permanent. The sallowness of the skin, furred appearance of the tongue, indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, pains through the right side and shoulder in fact every accompaniment of the obstinate complaint are entirely and promptly removed by a course of this inestimable medicine, in behalf of which testimony is constantly emanating from every quarter and from all classes of society and Furnishing Goods,

Far surpasses all our efforts heretofore although we have always had the nobbiest styles in the market. We have many new effects in Saxony, Scotch, Australian ... Sawyers ... Berkshires ... Wide Wales, Cork screws ... Crepes, etc., and we invite the public to call and inspect our splendid stock.
We wish to say a word to people residing in the country. It is only natural that they should be somewhat in doubt as to whether it is an advantage to order goods unseen ... that this doubt has been dispelled is proven conclusively by the large increase in our Order Department. It only takes a trial order to prove that our customers receive the same treatment and buy as cheaply as if they were selecting in person at our store.
The character of our goods, workmanship, style, artistic cutting, quality, trimmings and materials of a higher standard than can be found in any country ... retail establishment in the United States that excel ... in all the good qualities that make up ... garments or that sells ... at ... prices than we do.
We give all orders whether large or small the most scrupulous care and by so doing retain the confidence of our patrons. We ... samples with plain rules for self-measurement free to any address.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

KLICKITAT COUNTY

On the 22d the house occupied by Howard Marshall and family at Grant's was found to be on fire. Owing to the scarcity of water nothing could be done, and the house and contents were burned. The fire is supposed to have caught from the stovepipe.

LEWIS COUNTY

The Chehalis new flour mill started up its machinery on the 26th inst.

Chehalis has no fire department, and there is talk of organizing a hook and ladder company.

The Episcopal Sabbath school of Chehalis recently received a gift of 500 books from St. James' church of Milwaukee, Wis.

WHITMAN COUNTY

Colfax was overrun last Saturday night by a mob of fifty or sixty discharged railroaders, who defied the sheriff and his deputy and did as they pleased, to the terror of all good citizens.

A 4-year old son of Mr Spence, proprietor of the Medical Lake boat house, was drowned in the lake on Thursday evening of last week. The body was found in shallow water, near the boat house. It is supposed that the child fell between a couple of boats.

SKAGIT COUNTY

The Mt Vernon News figures up the losses by the recent forest fires as follows: McKay & Millett, $ 000; Longfellow Bros, $1000; Ball & Barlow, $3000; D Storrs, $800; C H Kimble, barn and contents, $4000; W W Tinkham, $100. Total, $8600.

A young man by the name of Frank Ayres, who had a claim back of Hamilton, mysteriously disappeared last April, since which time nothing has been heard of him. Everything was found at his house undisturbed, but the query is, what has become of the man? Some of the settlers think he met with foul play, while others think he committed suicide.

KITTITAS COUNTY

The farmers find ready market for their products along the railroad line. Nearly every house along the road is said to be a feed yard and house of entertainment.

Farmers in the Wenatchie country have built a ditch eight or nine miles long and carry in 400 to 500 inches of water. The land which will be irrigated is said to be of excellent quality.

The Ellensburg Localizer says there is a fine opportunity on the Wenatchie for anyone who would like to build a sawmill in that country. There is a good water power to be had and plenty of good timber close at hand. There is no sawmill in the whole country, and there are about seventy ranches taken. Lumber is very much needed there.

GARFIELD COUNTY

Pomeroy correspondence Walla Walla Journal, August 27: Levi A Larrick has been for some time suspected by cattle men of stealing cattle and on Thursday evening about fifteen or twenty citizens of Pomeroy and vicinity, including Wm McEnnery, Thompson & Gammon and M Buckley, went out on Deadman, about twenty miles from Pomeroy, to watch him during the night. About 9 o'clock he was found driving to his corral some cattle that he had found about seven miles from his home. When about one quarter of a mile from the house the party surrounded the road and ordered him to surrender. He refused when he was taken off his horse and tied and brought to Pomeroy, where he is held charged with stealing a cow and calf from M Buckley, also on charge of stealing from Wm. McEnnery, and it is said other charges will be made. The cattle he was driving belonged to Mr Buckley, Mr McEnnery and Mr McCoy, a cattle man of Waitsburg. Mr Larrick is held for preliminary examination in $800 bail.

SPOKANE COUNTY

In Spokane county the total taxation for territorial, county school, road and bridge purposes is 19 mills. Poll tax $4.

Wm Prosser and A. R. Gleason, living three miles east of Cheney, lost several stacks of grain each and the former lost also a wagon by fire on the 21st. Total loss, $1000. Cause, incendiarism.

The Washington Fair association, which was advertised to hold its first annual exhibition in Spokane Falls the first four days in September, has postponed the time till Tuesday, September 21, the fair to continue through to Saturday, the 25th. This change has been made at the request of the farmers, who are just now in the midst of their harvesting and threshing operations.

A new two-story dwelling being built for C R Kingman at Spokane Falls, was destroyed by an incendiary fire on the night of the 22d inst. The loss falls on the contractors, Oliver Bros. The incendiary had placed a box of cartridges among a pile of shavings and set them on fire. When the cartridges commenced to explode, a Mr Clough who was attempting to extinguish the fire, was compelled to flee.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Victoria has 1412 legal voters. At an election a few days ago but 600 votes were polled.

Mr Macdougall and Williams with a party of men, have begun the work of constructing the postal telegraph line at New Westminster.

The city of Victoria has voted by-laws for city improvements, to include a waterworks system, which will necessitate an outlay of $150,000. The Victorians are becoming enterprising.

Sir Donald A. Smith, Lord Anson, Mr Northcote, the second son of Sir Stafford Northcote, and a select party are expected in British Columbia at an early day, having left Ottawa last week in a private car.

Says the Victoria Colonist: Mr J D Campbell of Esquimalt, who returned from Scotland on the 24th, brought with him a number of English larks, which he will turn out here. Several larks died on the way out. The late Mr Roscoe, M. P., set a number of English larks free at Ross bay about twelve years ago and they were never heard of any more. Mr Campbell, it is hoped, will have better luck.

TERRITORIAL POLITICS.

The Klickitat county delegation to the republican convention are instructed to secure the nomination of Hon R. O Dunbar for delegate.

Asotin correspondent Dayton Inlander: From what is now known this county, in November, will go solid for anti monopoly and forfeiture.

It is reported by the Clarke County Register that Pierce county republicans will have two delegations in the territorial convention, and that there will be a contest to decide which delegation is entitled to the seats.

The Whitman county republicans send these gentlemen to the Tacoma convention: W H Pritchard, C F Sullivan, A. M Chapman, H H Spaulding, C B Hopkins, T J Smith, A A Wilson, F W Connell, H F Stratton, F W Becker, C I M Boswell, Leo Comegys, S G Crutcher, Joseph Arrasmith, C P Chamberlain. They are understood to favor Brents for delegate.

The republicans of Lincoln county elected the following delegates to the Tacoma convention: J H Nichols, C Babcock, A. S Melcher, George B Weaver, A. W McDonald, J G Wolf, John Glazebrook, Richard Fish, J. B. Irvine, F M Kinnear, Guy Smith. The convention was addressed by Ezra Meeker, who is making an active canvass for himself through the upper country.

Spokane county republicans have made the following nominations: Representative, Dr W. P Grubb, of Rockford; treasurer, Samuel Gray; auditor, B C Van Houton; sheriff, D F Anderson; probate judge, M T Harston; surveyor, Mr Emerly, of Deep creek falls; school superintendent, W. B. Richardson; coroner, Dr C. S Penfield; commissioners, James P Campbell of Latah, and Chas. McDowell; joint councilman, F H Graves, of Spokane Falls; prosecuting attorney, W C Jones, of Cheney. Resolutions were passed favoring a protective tariff, demanding repeal of the gross earnings tax law; favoring annexation of the Idaho pan handle; urging the passage of an inter-state commerce law; opposing railroad selection of lands outside the forty-mile limit and selection in this territory to recompense losses in states and other territories; opposing repeal or modification of the woman suffrage law; favoring continuance of the local option law "until such time as prohibition may be submitted to a popular vote of the people of Washington territory;" opposing nomination as delegates to the territorial convention of men who first owe allegiance to corporations.

FARM NOTES

Ezra Leaning of Kittitas county, W T, succeeded this year in raising a cucumber which measured four feet five and one-half inches.

Mr. Byrd, who resides a few miles above Burns, in Harney valley, says his grain crop this year is a perfect failure. What the grasshoppers didn't destroy the blackbirds did. Mr H. claims to have sown fifty acres of grain, and out of that fifty acres will harvest thirty bushels.

Mt. Vernon (Skagit county) News: Wm Hamilton has raised several successful crops of corn on a piece of ground in his orchard, and he informs us that this season's crop is the best that he has ever raised. The upper Skagit is coming to the front for corn, tomatoes and melons.

The Smith Bros. are doing a large share of the threshing in this vicinity, says the LaCenter correspondent of the Clarke county Register. Spring sown grain is very light yield, not averaging more than twelve bushels to the acre; fall sown about fifteen bushels. The potato crop is very light, not over 100 bushels to the acre. The fruit crop is an average one in the vicinity of Lewis river.

The crops of Yakima county are unusually good this season. It is estimated that the wheat crop will reach fully 60,000 bushels this year.

The Goldendale Sentinel says that a cow belonging to Azor Halbert, a few days ago began to act strangely, and getting to a stone fence, rubbed her head against it until she was covered with blood. A rope was thrown around her and she was kept away from it, whereupon she got on her knees and rubbed her head on the ground. The animal died, and an examination showed that she had got a tick in her ear, which had penetrated the brain.

IDAHO.

In a dance house at Wardner, Thomas Loy shot and fatally wounded Webb Leisher. Loy fled and has not yet been captured.

Lewiston Teller, 26th: Two sons of Thomas Tierney of Thorn creek, have been arrested for stealing cattle and taking them to Colfax and disposing of them. They were brought before Justice Hudson, in this city on Tuesday, and put under $500 bonds each.

The people of Boise City threaten to bring suit against the officers of the U P and O S L railroad companies for failure to build the branch line into Boise as promised. The right of way cost them $60 000, and they want either the road built or the money refunded.

FOREST GROVE NOTES

FOREST GROVE, Aug 31.

The harvest is virtually over. Apples, pears and plums are plentiful. The potato crop will be very short.

Misses Anna Jackson and Visa Kane will return to Tacoma this week to teach in the public school there, they having been re-elected.

The event of this week will be the reopening of Pacific university and Tualatin academy. The interest manifested in this institution never was greater. The coming year is full of promise.

Prof Napoleon Davis last week removed with his family to The Dalles, he having accepted the principalship of the public schools of that city. The friends of those schools will find in Prof. D a thorough scholar, a good man and an educator whose methods of instruction are modern and in common with those of the best teachers we have. We predict a most successful school at The Dalles.

Typhoid Fever

Charles Hartford, of Newcastle, Westchester county, N Y, suffered with typhoid fever and was given up to die. He was restored to health in one week by taking five Brandreth's Pills every night and drinking plentifully of oatmeal gruel. A few doses of Brandreth's Pills will invariably cure any kind of fever.

WHEAT—Foreign markets cheaper to sell in and very much neglected. Chicago and New York closed below Saturday's closing by ⅛ to ⅜c. San Francisco is cheaper and the advices of to-day are not without effect here. Business continues very light but receipts mark some increase doubtless because of recent interior business. For the two grades $1 15 and $1 20 would be all buyers would quote, yet it is believed something better is still possible. The market however must respond to foreign advices and a lower turn now seems quite probable. The course of the market hinges largely upon English harvest returns and these will soon be known.

OATS—Lower advices cause a weaker feeling here and last prices would hardly be now obtained. The steamer carried out 1668 centals. Receipts not so large.

ONIONS—More coming forward and the market is hardly steady at $1@1 10.

EGGS—While some dealers sold at 15@16c to-day 18c is generally quoted with a firm market under light receipts.

CHICKENS—The week opens with old stocks well closed out but a weak feeling owing to recent heavy arrivals.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Governments bonds have been dull with quotations a shade higher. Stocks were generally firm early in the day but yielded before noon and the course of prices was generally downward until toward the close. There was no important move excepting in Manhattan, which dropped 1 per cent, part of which was later recovered. Prices at the opening were generally ¼ to ½ per cent below closing figures of Saturday. Jersey Central was up ½, and Pacific Mail and Delaware & Hudson ¼ each. There were slight advances in early trading in which Lackawanna and Texas & Pacific were most conspicuous, but the entire list soon yielded and early advances were generally lost. Over one-half the day's business was done in the first hour, after which the market settled down to the usual dull and listless condition, with no apparent movement in prices until the last hour, when there was a sharp advance of 1 per cent in Hocking valley; the market closing steady close to opening figures.

The Mail and Express says: Mining shares were quiet but generally strong. The market was without features. Sales: California & Virginia, $3; Navajo, 6ic; Nevada, 00c; Horn Silver, $1 50; North Belle Isle, $1 35; Leadville, 35c.

MONEY, BONDS AND STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug 30.—Money on call easy at 5 to 5½, closing 4 asked. Prime paper 4@5. Sterling exchange quiet and steady; $4 81¼ for sixty day bills; $4 84 for demand.

Foreign Markets

BEERBOHM GRAIN REPORT

LONDON, Aug 30.—Weather hot and fine. Floating cargoes dull; cargoes on passage less disposition to buy. Mark Lane declined 6d per qr. Arrivals off coast for orders, wheat small, maize nil. English and French country markets quieter. Farmers' deliveries past week 55 000 to 4[illegible] 000 qrs wheat.

PARIS, Aug 30.—Spot wheat steady.

LIVERPOOL, Aug 30.—Wheat neglected.

MARK LANE REVIEW

LONDON, Aug 30.—The Mark Lane Express in its weekly review of the British grain trade says: A week's splendid harvest weather has materially altered the position and much more grain will be secured. The crop in early sown districts is in fine condition while late sown crops are rapidly maturing. Another week's sunshine will probably cause a big drop in prices. Sales of English wheat during the past week were 56 463 quarters at 33s 1d against 39 61 quarters at 33s 8d during the corresponding week last year. The lower grades of flour are higher. The fervid summer has depressed foreign wheats. There are no buyers. There were three arrivals of wheat cargoes. One cargo of Oregon was sold, three cargoes were withdrawn and one remained. To-day sunshine overpowered the market. Old English wheats were neglected and prices were 1d lower. Foreign wheats were cheaper. Beans, peas and barley were steadier. Oats were weaker and the demand was slow. Foreign flour was 6d cheaper.

LIVERPOOL GRAIN MARKET

LIVERPOOL, Aug 30.—Wheat in poor demand; new winter dull at 5s 3d, do spring dull at [illegible]. Corn in poor demand; spot dull at 4s 4½d. August and September dull at 4s 4d.

How Dow Came to be a Prohibitionist

Washington Letter to N Y World.

I asked General Dow how long he had been identified with the temperance movement. He said over forty years—ever since 1840.

"How did you come to go into it?"

"I will tell you," said he. "My wife had a brother. He was employed in the postoffice in Portland. He was a most efficient official, and on account of his ability was greatly valued. But he was a hard drinker, and every now and then would go off on a spree for a week at a time. He had a large family of interesting children dependent upon him. I knew that however good an officer he was when sober his drinking habits would soon cause him to lose his place. I found out there was only one place in Portland where he could go to drink. Some of his friends told me that if I could get that rumseller to refuse to sell liquor to him he would not get drunk. I went to this rumseller and told him the story. I explained to him how it was necessary for the salvation of this man and his family that he should stop giving him liquor. He replied: 'It is my business to sell rum. I, too, have a family dependent upon me. I cannot refuse to sell to any one that comes along, and I do not want any advice from you as to how I shall conduct my business.'" "Then," said General Dow, "I turned on him and replied, so you support your family by destroying other families. Well, so help me God, I intend to live long enough to put your traffic down." From that moment Gen Dow has devoted the greater part of the energies of his life to putting what he calls the grogshops down.
